CHAPTER 654

AN ACT

To provide for the transfer of certain property situated in the State of Maine to the town of Castine, Maine.

July 20, 1956
[H. R. 11520]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Administrator of General Services is authorized and directed to convey by quitclaim deed, without consideration, to the town of Castine, Maine, for public-park purposes, all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to that portion of the property known as the Dice Head Lighthouse Reservation, Maine, consisting of the light tower and the plot of land surrounding such tower one hundred feet square (together with any right of ingress and egress thereto), which was excepted from the conveyance transferring a part of such reservation to the town of Castine, Maine, authorized by section 5 of the Act entitled "An Act to authorize the Secretary of Commerce to dispose of certain lighthouse reservations, and for other purposes", approved May 28, 1935 (49 Stat. 305), such property having been transferred to the Administrator of General Services for disposition as surplus property. The exact legal description of the property authorized to be conveyed under this Act shall be determined by the said Administrator.

Castine, Maine.
Conveyance.

SEC. 2. The conveyance authorized by this Act shall be subject to the conditions (1) that in the event the property conveyed pursuant to this Act ceases to be used for public-park purposes, all right, title, and interest so conveyed shall revert to the United States in accordance with the provisions of section 36 of the Act referred to in the first section of this Act, and (2) that the United States reserves the right to resume ownership, possession, and control, for Government purposes, of any of such property so conveyed, at any time and without the consent of the grantee.

Approved July 20, 1956.
